HOME SCHOOL AGREEMENT

Students will follow the code of conduct by:

- attending school on time and with the necessary equipment for learning
- following the school's behaviour policy at all times, behaving in a way that enables their own learning and other pupils' learning to take place effectively
- showing good manners to everyone at all times on and off site and following requests from staff the first time of asking
- supporting an atmosphere where everyone feels safe
- following the uniform code, including expectations for jewellery, piercings, hair style and colour
- produce work to the best of their ability at all times in class and for homework
- meeting all deadlines
- leaving mobile phones and other electronic devices at home or switching off phones and electronic devices at all times other than at morning break and lunchtime
- caring for the school environment by respecting the premises, putting all litter in the bins provided eating only in the dining room or hall or outside and reporting any damaged property to a member of staff

The school will provide a high quality education by:

- delivering high quality learning activities in all lessons for all students
- monitoring the progress of students and keeping them and their parents informed
- using positive behaviour management strategies to support excellent behaviour in lessons and around the school
- setting appropriate homework tasks in accordance with the homework policy and checking student planners regularly
- ensuring that all work is teacher marked, self-assessed or peer assessed according to the policy
- ensuring that all pupils are treated fairly and consistently

Parents will support the school in providing a high quality education by:

- supporting the school's ethos and aims by reinforcing the school's expectations at home, including the expectation that each pupil will work to the best of their ability and aim for the very best outcomes at all times
- supporting the school's policies, rewards and sanctions
- ensuring that students attend school punctually every day and with the correct equipment
- ensuring that students wear correct uniform every day
- supporting pupils in completing homework to a high standard by providing a suitable environment and allowing adequate time for deadlines to be met
- checking and signing the students' planner on a weekly basis and maintaining appropriate levels of contact with form tutors and subject teachers
- attending parents' evenings and relevant school events throughout the year
- supporting the attendance on educational visits and extra-curricular activities
- raising concerns about their child's education promptly and directly with the school rather than via social networking sites or otherwise bringing the school into disrepute.
- contacting reception with urgent messages and avoiding texting or calling student mobile phones during the day
- ensuring they attend every day and avoid taking holidays during term time
