

Magdalen College School

SCHOOL COUNSELLOR

PERSON SPECIFICATION

ESSENTIAL QUALITIES	DESIRABLE QUALITIES
Possess an excellent range of counselling skills and be able to communicate with a diverse range of adults and young people.	Experience of working in mainstream secondary education.
Ability to deal positively and empathetically with students who present emotional and behavioural difficulties.	Possess further or higher education qualifications.
Commitment to inclusive and comprehensive education.	Membership of BACP or similar organisation
Demonstrate a good knowledge and understanding of safeguarding.	A commitment to professional CPD
Ability to work both independently and as part of a team.
Well organised, show initiative and knowledge of GDPR
Qualified to use a wide range of counselling skills and techniques to meet the diverse needs of the students.
Professional Counselling Qualification Level 4 or above.
Experience of working with young people in an educational setting.
Provide evidence of engagement in regular professional clinical supervision	